

Penalties - Checklist of current penalties applying to tax avoidance and offshore tax evasion and non-compliance.

A number of new penalties have been introduced through legislative changes over recent years. Members have provided feedback that they would find it useful to have a summary of these changes which they can use as a checklist to ensure they have considered the implications in relation to their practice and their clients. The attached checklist has been prepared on this basis and to assist members in meeting the professional standards required from them.

Members are required to comply with the Standards set out in Professional Conduct in Relation to Taxation (PCRT) and Professional Rules and Practice Guidelines (PRPG):

- PRPG sets out the fundamental principles and the rules which a member must comply with which includes the requirement to maintain professional competence and exercise due care and the Continuing Professional Development (CPD) requirements. This document is a summary only and members should consider the further CPD required where they deal with specialist areas where these penalties may apply.
- PCRT focuses on the tripartite relationship between the tax adviser, the client and HMRC and much of the material contained in it will be of assistance here, in particular the sections on the Fundamental Principles, the Standards for Tax Planning and the help sheets on Tax Advice and Irregularities.

Members in the regulated sector should also be aware of their obligation under anti money laundering legislation to make a suspicious activity report (unless the privilege reporting exemption applies) where the member knows or suspects (or has reasonable grounds for doing so) that another person is engaged in defined criminal activity, which would include, for example, deliberately underpaying tax. Members should refer to the Anti Money Laundering Guidance for the Accountancy Sector \(AMLGAS\).

As tax penalty legislation is updated it is important that tax advisers are aware of those changes and seek to minimise exposure to those penalties for their own practice and for clients. The summary below sets out some of the recent legislative changes in Finance Acts and the Criminal Finances Act 2017 which relate to taxpayers and tax advisers and the associated penalties as at 3 February 2022.

Please note that this list is not exhaustive and does not cover routine compliance penalties eg in relation to failure to make returns (Sch 55 FA 2009), inaccurate returns (Sch 24 FA 2007), failure to notify chargeability (Sch 41 FA 2008), late payments of tax, or any changes to the late payment and late submission penalty regimes being introduced as part of the Government's Making Tax Digital programme. It covers penalties in UK legislation only.

This checklist has been produced for the guidance of members and to assist them in meeting the professional standards required of them. It is not a substitute for detailed professional advice. No responsibility can be accepted for the consequences of any action taken or refrained from as a result of the information in this checklist.

There will be a statutory requirement to correct the issue between 6 April 2017 and 30 September 2018. The issue is treated as corrected if the taxpayer takes steps including a disclosure under the WDF before the deadline. Note however that WDF offers no tax amnesty, penalty reduction or guarantee of non-prosecution. | Failure to carry out the necessary corrections by 30 September 2018 will render the taxpayer liable to a new failure to correct (FTC) penalty which starts at 200% of the offshore potential lost revenue (PLR), and which may not be reduced (for disclosure etc) below 100% of the offshore PLR. The FTC penalty does not take into account the seriousness of the cause of the original error/ omission, thus treating technical errors/ cases where reasonable care was taken when a return was submitted in the same way as those where a person deliberately omitted income or gains. | 16 November 2017 |
